

The Center for People of All Races

A voice and a hub for the Latino community as we advocate on behalf of our people and work to achieve social justice.

Our Wish List

El Centro de la Raza is always looking for ways to continue to help the community and its growth in the upcoming years. Here is our wish list, which helps us not only keep our costs down, but this also allows us the resources to concentrate on the great need for development and services within our community. We ask that you support our hard work by contributing your direct help and generosity through a donation of the items listed below. Please take a moment to look over the items listed and see what you can help us with.
